NUMBER 195

CARDINAL GIBBONS SEES HOPE OF THE Country For Correction of Corruption in Men and Officials, Only in Lime Light of Press Publicity.

New York, July 27.—Cardinal James Gibbons, who is spending the summer at Southampton, L. I., has given out an interview on the subject of corruption in business and public life, which he declares must be cured by publicity through the press.

"Corruption is a fixed evil that we must reckon with just as long as the present condition of society exists in this country," said the cardinal.

"Whenever there is amalgamation of great capital or large collection of men, interested in any money making concern, there is sure to be corruption. Corruption has always existed. The bright spot is the fact that degradation is made known. Corruption cannot exist nowadays without being discovered after a while.

"Greater the evil, the greater is the possibility of remedy. Fear, dread of exposure, is the counter-balancing element, and that fear, that dread, that horror of having a name, once respected, dragged down, is due to the efforts of the metropolitan press.

"There is nothing which a man prizes more than his reputation, and the only way to effectually upset a man's reputation, is to expose him in the public press.

"The power of the press is incalculable. Sometimes it happens that a defect is shown in exaggerated form, but as a rule, public exposure of public men is a public benefaction.

"The great trouble maker of this country is money. Americans are not misers, thank God. Otherwise we would be in a more deplorable condition. When great fortunes are made they are almost as rapidly expended, and the constant circulation of money, keeping going of great accumulations of wealth, is one of the hopeful signs of the future."

LOS ANGELES MAN
TALKS ON STATEHOOD

Hon. E. J. Niles, Prominent Capitalist, Favors Joint Statehood.

BELIEVES THE BILL WILL PASS

Hon. E. J. Niles, well known capitalist of Los Angeles, who has been prominently connected with upbuilding of that city, who is spending a few days in Albuquerque, the guest of Col. W. H. Greer, is a strong advocate of joint statehood. Mr. Niles has made a careful study of the statehood question and as he has traveled extensively over both territories, he is well posted on the subject.

"You want to know what I think of New Mexico and Arizona, as regards the statehood question, do you?" is the way he answered my question, as reported by a reporter for the Evening Citizen.

"Well, to get right down to the question, I will say that for the past two weeks I have been with Col. Greer and during that time I have heard, it seems to me, no other subject conversed about but statehood. It seems to me of such paramount importance that no two people from the southwest can meet without at once becoming involved in a controversy.

"In Los Angeles, men from New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Oklahoma or any other place in the United States resolve themselves into a committee to settle the matter and it usually results in a riot call. From my observations I am satisfied that statehood is the desire of a great majority of the citizens of both territories and while the leaders in both are opposed to joint statehood, the mass of the people, the leading attorneys, the bankers, the better class of business men, in fact all those who have the real interest of the commonwealth at heart are unalterably irrevocably and insistently for statehood, single statehood, if possible, but statehood in any event, and their deductions are logical, their conclusions are final and justly so, for no argument has been advanced by the opponents of statehood other than a selfish one.

"The underlying motive of those opposed to joint statehood in both territories would appear to be a fear on the part of the politicians that there would not be enough offices to go around in the event of statehood. While a potent argument from their viewpoint, it carries no weight with the people.

"Another draw back New Mexico and Arizona have, and a draw back that is not generally realized, is that it would be next to impossible to induce a convention of any kind to come to a territory. By convention I mean any great body of people such as the Knights Templar, the Elks, the League or other great bodies that go to advertise a country. The reason would be that the name of territory would make them balk.

"By the way, I want to tell you an amusing incident that happened in the lobby of the Holbeck hotel recently, and which can explain the sentiments of prominent Arizonians on the statehood question. A number of gentlemen had met in the lobby of the hotel and after exhausting the ordinary topics someone mentioned statehood. A live wire could not have produced such a commotion. Gossip, rhetoric, finished and unfinished, invective, billingsgate and other things poured forth in a fierce volume upon the astonished native auditors.

"Finally, to clinch the argument, one of the group suddenly called: 'General, general, here a comment.' Gratifyingly, a tall, clean-cut and dignified gentleman, joined the party, and was introduced as General Alsworth, of Arizona, an undoubted authority on matters appertaining to statehood and one well qualified to extinguish Col. Greer.

"General Alsworth asked one of the party, 'give the colonel your opinion on joint statehood.'

"'Certainly,' the general responded. 'Colonel, I want to say to you that the only salvation of the two territories is joint statehood. I am unalterably opposed to single statehood. I believe joint statehood will be the means of making New Mexico and Arizona one of the greatest states in the union and let me tell you genlemen, that being an attorney, I voice the opinion of the great majority of attorneys of Arizona when I say they are for joint statehood.

"What?" asked the gentlemen who had called him. 'Do you mean that general?'

"I certainly do," was the response. "The argument was then closed by the general taking all of us into lunch."

"You ask me what I think of Albuquerque?"

"Well, I think that your city is the most thriving, prosperous, up to date community in the west. Your street car service under the able management of Col. Greer cannot be excelled by any city the size of Albuquerque. The Casino at the end of the ear line is a unique summer theater and is the means of very enjoyable recreation. The number of new buildings and houses going up is astonishing and the hospitality of your people of such a character that I cannot express myself as I would like.

PRIVATE JONES
LOVES ALICE

Charming Daughter of the President and Blames Mrs. Roosevelt

FOR COMING IN BETWEEN THEM

New York, July 27.—Private James G. Jones, of the regular army, who had been serving a term of imprisonment on Governor's island for desertion, has been removed to Castle Williams on charge of insanity.

Although great secrecy has been maintained, the world states that it has been learned that Private Jones had been writing love letters to Miss Alice Roosevelt. More than a score had reached her through the mail and the matter was placed in the hands of secret service agents, when finally Jones wrote a sharp letter to Mrs. Roosevelt, in which he charged the latter with standing between the president's daughter and himself.

NAVAL MANEUVERS CREATE COMMENT

London, July 27.—The British channel fleet will sail for the Baltic area on August 20, and will remain through September. It has been many years since a British fleet appeared in that sea, and the announcement is connected in the public mind with Emperor William's recent tour and the visit of the German squadron to Scandinavian waters.

The admiralty, however, discourages the idea of politics having any bearing on the cruise, and says the fleet is simply going there to execute maneuvers. A tremendous visit not being contemplated.

CHINA NEEDS GOOD
RAPPING ON KNUCKLES

Shanghai, July 27.—Native bankers here are calling a meeting to discuss the proposal of a boycott of the International Banking Corporation. The international corporation was organized in 1901 under the laws of Connecticut. It was then the only American banking institution formed for the purpose of doing business in foreign countries.

The corporation was made the agent of the United States government for receipt of payment on account of the Boxer indemnity. It is capitalized at $3,000,000.

EUROPEAN BANKERS TO RAISE INDEMNITY.

Berlin, July 27.—In view of the probability of an early peace between Russia and Japan, the terms of which will involve the payment of a heavy indemnity by Russia, financiers of Europe have been holding conferences to the end that the peace indemnity may be paid without seriously disturbing the finances of the world.

Mendelssohn, who for many years has negotiated the most of Russia's loans, have formed an alliance with the Rothschilds regarding the matter, and have held communications with all the leading financial institutions, both on the continent and in England.

They are about to send representatives to New York with a view of enlisting the co-operation of the large financiers of the United States. It is likely the Russian loan, for the purpose of paying the indemnity, will be scattered, and that a considerable portion of it will be taken in the United States.

Lead and Copper. New York, July 27.—Lead, firm, $4.60@4.70; copper, firm, 15 1/4@15 1/2.

THE METROPOLIS
OF AMERICA

Fads and Fancies in the World's Second Largest City

AND WHAT IS DOING THERE

New York, July 27.—County Clerk Thomas L. Hamilton and his friends are confident that he is to be the candidate of the republican organization for mayor. They say that he will be endorsed by the Municipal Ownership league and the Hearst clubs. According to information given out this week, an understanding has been reached between the republican county organization and the Municipal ownership league, by which fusion between the two forces will be effected for the coming municipal campaign. That fusion contemplates the nomination of Hamilton for mayor, it is said, and whoever Hearst and his followers decide upon for controller. The man at present most talked of for controller on the proposed fusion ticket is Martin W. Littleton, Brooklyn's borough president. The proposed fusion does not take into account the Citizens' union. It is not the intention of the republican organization, it is said, to make any great effort to conciliate its former chief ally in fusion campaigns.

Playgrounds for Babies. One innovation this year in the vacation schools is the establishment of seven playgrounds for mothers and babies in Manhattan and Brooklyn. The design underlying the selection of these places contemplated a cool and comfortable resort for social entertainments among the women, and the giving to them of valuable instruction regarding the care of the children. The corps of instructors at each are nurses and expert kindergarten teachers. Talks are given about dirt and the care of babies along scientific lines, and the means by which children can be amused rationally and profitably.

In the domestic science classes the teachers are trained nurses give special instructions on diet in the torrid season, including the preparation of food, and also on measures to be taken to avoid heat prostrations, and what is to be done if stricken.

Brooklyn Marine Barracks. Not for years has there been so few men in the local marine barracks, and the officials are puzzled to know how to fill out the necessary posts. Indeed, several guard posts have been abandoned, and in those which must be kept up, the force has been cut sometimes one-half. The strength of the corps at the barracks is now only 250, whereas, the normal strength for years has been 400. The chief reason, according to an authority in marine corps matters, for the low state of the corps at the Brooklyn barracks at the present time, is the large number of desertions from the big war ships. "More men," has been the cry for a month from the commanding officers of many of the largest vessels of the North Atlantic fleet, and still the cry is, "send us more."

Much has been said about the desertions from the navy in the past year, but it is now asserted that the marine corps has fallen off, and there appears to be little chance of any immediate increase. The entire force of the corps should be 14,000, and it is 1,600 short at the present time, with every prospect of a further depletion as a result of the hot weather.

JERUSALEM TO BE FOR THE JEWS

Growing Interest in Acquisition of Palestine for Chosen People.

MANY ARE FROM UNITED STATES

Basle, Switzerland, July 27.—Between 2,000 and 3,000 delegates were present today at the opening of the sixth world's congress of the Zionist movement, which has for its object the restoration of Jerusalem to the Jews. Nearly every civilized country in the world is represented at the congress, the large attendance being an indication of the extraordinary importance attached to the present session.

Nearly fifty delegates are here from the United States alone. Included in the number are William D. Levinson, of Des Moines, Iowa; William Morris, of Philadelphia; Dr. Corant, of New York city; Julius Singer, of Buffalo; Dr. L. H. Landman, of Cincinnati; Dr. W. Lewis-Epstein, of New York city; Dr. Aaron, of Baltimore; S. Shepinsky, of Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Frank, of Pittsburgh; Rabbi Gorowitz, of Rhode Island; Dr. Stephen S. Wise, of Portland, Ore.; Dr. H. P. Hendes, of New York city; Harriet Levy, of Scranton; Leon Zolotoff, of Chicago, and Miss Eva Magnes, of Brooklyn.

The congress was formally opened by Dr. Max Nordau. The first feature of the program was the holding of services in memory of Dr. Theodore Herzl, the founder of the Zionist movement, who died one year ago today.

There are many important matters to come up for consideration at the present session. One of these is the selection of a new president to succeed Dr. Herzl. Two candidates are mentioned for the position, Max Nordau, the eminent French doctor and author, and Herr Walffsohn, of Cologne.

Another important matter that must be decided is the acceptance or rejection of the offer of the British government to furnish a large tract of land in British East Africa for the establishment of a Zionist colony. The special commission sent to the site of the proposed colony by the Zionist movement last spring has prepared a report against the acceptance of the offer of the British government, and it is expected that the congress will adopt the report, though some opposition is expected.

Another matter that will receive attention is the proposed reorganization of the Zionist movement, the change to tend toward decentralization, which change is regarded as necessary since the death of Dr. Herzl. The grand executive committee has prepared a report advocating the appointment of a directorate for the guidance of the Zionist movement, composed of Max Nordau, Prof. Walffsohn, of Cologne, and Prof. Warburg, of Berlin.

IF CHINA GETS UGLY SPANK HER

Washington, D. C., July 27.—Some doubt is expressed in official circles whether it will be possible to obtain China's consent to another treaty with the United States, providing for even the exclusion of Chinese laborers from this country.

The state department is aware of the ill feeling throughout China on the whole subject, and now that the immigration treaty with China has been allowed to lapse, without negotiating a new treaty, reports have reached here that China is inclined hereafter to refuse to sign any similar agreement.

Drawing in on Vladivostok, While Advancing Their Forty Mile

OF SOLID AGGRESSIVE FRONT

Tokio, July 27.—Local critics, discussing the situation in North Korea, predict that the Russians will vigorously defend Kyong Cheung, to the south of the Tumen river. This town is regarded as most important from a strategic point, as it controls Posiet bay. Kyong Cheung is also regarded as the outer line of defenses of Vladivostok.

JAPS ARE ADVANCING FORTY MILES OF FRONT.

Kuanchangsan, Manchuria, July 27.—According to reports from Korea, the Japanese continue advancing along the forty-mile front. Their vanguard is now about eighty miles south of the Tumen river. Tokio, July 27.—Rear Admiral Kataoka is reporting a successful landing of Japanese forces in the vicinity of Alexandrovsk, on Saghalin island. He says the pier at Alexandrovsk, Niyomi and Mukake were found undestroyed, but the enemy set fire to the towns of Mukake and Aikawa.

SUCCESSFULLY OCCUPYING SAKALIN ISLAND.

Tokio, July 27.—It is officially reported that a Japanese detachment, which was protecting the landing of troops on Sakalin island, dislodged the enemy from Aikawa and vicinity, occupied their first line of defense at Polovin and then the second line at Aikawa. Another detachment occupied the third line of defenses at Aikawa on the same afternoon. Continuing the advance, Alexandrovsk was taken and entered the same evening, after some resistance. A detachment of Japanese headed by a torpedo boat, landed at Mugai, dislodged the Russians there and captured 40,000 tons of coal and some light railway material.

BALL BOYS TO GIVE BIG DANCE

Social Event at Elks' Theater on Night of August 24th.

WILL BE AN ELABORATE AFFAIR

The Albuquerque Browns will be hosts at a big dance and reception on Thursday night, August 24, at Elks' theater, and elaborate preparations are being made by Manager F. J. Houston and the boys to make the event one of the most successful of the summer season.

The dance will be in the nature of a benefit for the boys and the money derived from it will be used to finance the team during the remainder of the summer and to pay new players that will have to be added to the team during the fair tournament.

The tickets will be $1 a piece and will be placed on sale within the next two weeks. Many have already evidenced their desire to attend and the outlook is for one of the largest and most successful parties of the year.

Manager Houston announces that he will have some surprises for that night, which will be good news to the local fans in particular.

GERMANY WANTS SPECIAL
TARIFF TREATY NOW

Washington, D. C., July 27.—Germany's commercial relations with the United States will be among the most important subjects to come up before the senate at the next session of congress.

Having negotiated commercial relations with Belgium, Italy, Russia, Roumania and Serbia, Germany is anxious to make similar arrangements with the United States.

The new treaties already concluded became effective March 1, and preliminary notice has been received that the German treaty with this country will be allowed to lapse November 10. The lapse of the treaty, coming late in November, it is believed, will bring the subject to the consideration of the senate. The effect upon American exports without the treaty, will be to subject them to the maximum rates of the German tariff.

NATURAL GAS WRECK
HOME AND KILLS FAMILY

Somerset, Ohio, July 27.—Former state senator Wm. E. Quinn and his wife were fatally burned today in a natural gas explosion that wrecked their home here. For some days there had been an odor of escaping gas in their home, and efforts to find the leak had been unavailing.
